(54) Title: SECURE AND AUDITABLE ON-LINE SYSTEM

(57) Abstract: The present invention provides a method a system and a device for obtaining security and auditability in an on-line system. The system is a closed system and only auditors and/or authorities have access to the system. By means of a random number generator and a processing means a random number - sequence number pair is generated and stored in a storage means. By verifying stored random number - sequence number pairs, every stored random number - sequence number pair can be authenticated.
